Book Discussion Kits are a free service being offered by the Charlotte County Library System to encourage reading and exploring new worlds through sharing experiences in groups.

Charlotte County already has many local reading groups at churches, libraries, retirement homes, and neighborhood groups.

Start your own group today with these handy kits. Each kit includes 4-12 copies of a book and a guide. The guides include a variety of information: author biographies, lists of the authors' works, other books you might like, and sometimes further information about a specific topic outlined in the book or discussion questions.

Currently over 150 titles are available and can be found by searching our card catalog.

Go to www.CharlotteCountyFL.com

1. Click on 'Library Pages'
2. Click on 'Library Catalog'
3. Search for 'Book Discussion Kit'

Ask about our kits for kids, we call them Kid Kits. Help them expand their social skills by sharing what they appreciate about books.
